Excused: Senator Grizzle until 9:35 a.m., Senator Barron until 11:40 a.m., Senator Henderson

Prayer by the Rev. David T. Solomon, Pastor, Immanuel Baptist Church, Tallahassee:

Our Father, we thank thee for your lovely creation called Florida. The beauty of her coastline, her sundrenched shores; surely when you fashioned her, it was with a smile on your face, for she has brought pleasure to so many. We feel fortunate to be one of her native sons, born in her midst, educated in her schools.

Surely she is well-deserving of our love. May we love her as a parent loves a child, with a love that is caring and patient and kind as the child continues to grow under the guiding hand of a loving parent. May we love her as a gift passed to us by the loving hands of others who have nurtured and cared for her; who have given their very lives that she might have life. May we love her with the love of a marriage; to love and to cherish her in sickness and in health, in poverty and in wealth, in good days and bad days so long as both shall live. May we so love her today that others will love her in days to come. Amen.

SB 349 was laid on the table.

On motion by Senator Beard, the rules were waived and by two-thirds vote HB 407 was withdrawn from the Committee on Transportation.

On motion by Senator Beard—

HB 407—A bill to be entitled An act relating to the Department of Transportation; amending s. 337.25(5), Florida Statutes, to provide that the department may convey surplus property to other state agencies to be used for a public purpose; providing an effective date.

—a companion measure, was substituted for SB 469 and read the second time by title.

Senator Beard moved the following amendment:

Amendment 1—On page 1, line 11, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert: Section 1. Subsection (5) of section 253.034, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

253.034 State-owned lands; uses.—

(5) The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund shall determine which lands, the title to which is vested in the board, and which Murphy Act lands and lands held for road and canal right-of-way, spoil areas, or borrow pits, the title to which is held by the state, are of no benefit to the public; and the owner of said lands shall dispose of said lands, pursuant to law, as surplus. Within 2 years of July 1, 1980, and at least every 5 years thereafter in a form and manner prescribed by the board, each state agency shall indicate to the board those lands which the agency owns or manages which the agency believes are surplus. The proceeds from the disposal of such lands shall be placed in the Conservation and Recreation Lands Trust Fund.

Section 2. Subsections (2) and (5) of section 337.25, Florida Statutes, are amended, and subsection (7) is added to said section to read:

337.25 Acquisition, lease and disposal of real and personal property.—

(2) The department may sell, lease, or convey, in the name of the state, any land, buildings, or other property, real or personal, which was ~~shall have been~~ acquired under the provisions of subsection (1) and which the department determines is no longer needed ~~shall not be necessary~~ for the construction of roads the contemplated road. In disposing of such property properties as authorized under this section, the department may authorize the proper administrative official to negotiate for the sale of such properties, real or personal, when the value of such properties is less than $100. Properties acquired under subsection (1) which shall not be necessary for construction of the contemplated road, and if the value exceeds of which shall exceed $100, then such property may ~~shall be sold only~~ by receipt of sealed competitive bids, after due advertisement, or by public auction held at the site of the improvement which is being sold. If as a result of an inquiry the department initiates the process for disposing of property valued in excess of $100 as provided herein, the person making the inquiry shall bear the cost of an independent appraisal to determine the fair market value of the property. If the property is sold to someone other than such person then the cost of the independent appraisal shall be borne by the purchaser and the person making the inquiry shall have the cost of the appraisal refunded to him. If however no purchase takes place then the person making the initial inquiry shall forfeit the sum paid by him for the independent appraisal. If, due to action of the department, the property is removed from eligibility to be sold, the cost of any appraisal prepared shall be refunded to the person who paid for the appraisal. ~~However, Where in the discretion of the department, however, public sale would be inequitable, properties acquired under subsection (1) which shall not be necessary for construction of the contemplated road may be sold by negotiation to the owner holding title to all privately owned abutting properties, or to the owner of the only abutting land between which and the road the property being sold lies, provided that such sale shall be at a negotiated price not less than fair market value as determined by an independent appraisal, the cost of which shall be paid by the owner of the abutting land. If negotiations do not result in sale of the property to the owner of the abutting land and the property is sold to someone else, then the cost of the independent appraisal shall be borne by the purchaser and the owner of the abutting land shall have the cost of the appraisal refunded to him. If, however, no purchase takes place, then the owner of the abutting land shall forfeit the sum paid by him for the independent appraisal. If, due to action of the department, the property is removed from eligibility to be sold, the cost of any appraisal prepared shall be refunded to the owner of the abutting land at not less than the appraised value of the properties being sold, where in the discretion of the department public sale would be inequitable.~~ Sales of houses and other structures as provided hereby shall first be made in single units; thereafter, sales in bulk may be made as herein provided. Removal of houses and other structures, when sales are made under bulk sale provisions as herein provided, shall not be permitted until all houses and structures sold in single units have been removed from the site. "Due advertisement" under this section shall be advertisement in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the improvements of not less than 14 calendar days prior to the date of the receipt of bids or the date on which public auction is to be held.

(5) In addition to the options otherwise available to the department, property held by the department which is no longer used or needed may be leased or conveyed without consideration to a county, municipality or other unit of state or local government to be used for a public purpose. In the case of property acquired for use as a borrow pit but which is no longer needed, the department may sell such property to the owner of the parcel of abutting land from which the borrow pit was originally acquired, provided the sale shall be at a negotiated price not less than fair market value as determined by an independent appraisal, the cost of which is paid by the owner of such abutting land.

(7) The appraisal required by subsections (2) and (5) shall be prepared in accordance with department guidelines and regulations by an independent appraiser who has been certified by the department. If federal funds were used in the acquisition of the property, the appraisal shall also be subject to the approval of the Federal Highway Administration of the United States Department of Transportation.

Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming law.

Senator Renick moved the following amendment to Amendment 1 which was adopted.

Amendment 1A—On page 3, strike lines 20 and 21, and insert:

A new subsection (7) is added to section 337.28, Florida Statutes, to read:

337.28 Rights-of-way furnished by counties; eminent domain; contracts with department; bond.—

(7) Any property which was acquired by a county for rights-of-way for roads on the state highway or state park road system and which is no longer used or needed by the department may be conveyed without consideration to that county. The county may then sell such surplus property upon receipt of competitive bids in the same manner prescribed for the department in s. 337.25(2).

Amendment 1 as amended was adopted.

Senator Beard moved the following amendment:

Amendment 2—In title on page 1, strike lines 2-6, and insert: An act relating to state lands and to the disposal of property by the Department of Transportation; amending s. 253.034(5), Florida Statutes, to delete specified lands from a list of certain state lands which may be disposed of as surplus lands; amending s. 337.25(2), (5), Florida Statutes, and adding subsection (7) to said section; providing for appraisals by independent appraisers; allocating the costs of such appraisals; providing for conveyance of property by the department to other state units; providing for preparation of appraisals in accordance with guidelines and regulations of the department and for approval by the Federal Highway Administration under certain circumstances; providing an

Senator Renick moved the following amendment to Amendment 2 which was adopted:

Amendment 2A—In title on page 1, strike line 13, and insert: Administration under certain circumstances; adding a new subsection (7) to section 337.28, Florida Statutes; providing that the Department of Transportation may gratuitously convey surplus land to a county that had previously acquired such lands for rights of way on the state primary system; providing an

197.072 Notice of taxes; tax certificates; tax certificate sales by mail.—

(5) A statement shall accompany the notice of taxes provided for in subsection (1), which statement shall include:

(a) One table consisting of six separate columns and appropriate totals for each column, which table shall show for each taxing authority in the aggregate:

1. In the first column, each applicable rolled-back millage rate computed pursuant to s. 200.065(1) for every nonvoted millage levy and the applicable millage levied for the prior year for each millage levy adopted by vote of the electors pursuant to s. 9(b) or s. 12, Art. VII of the State Constitution.

2. In the second column, an extension of the amount of taxes that would have been levied against the parcel had the millage rates in the first column been adopted.

3. In the third column, the actual applicable millage rate or rates levied by the taxing authority.

4. In the fourth column, the amount of taxes actually levied against the parcel by the taxing authority, based on the rates shown in the third column.

5. In the fifth column, the difference between columns four and two.

6. In the sixth column, the percentage change from column two to column four.

(b) A separate table listing in one column the identity of each taxing authority levying an amount less than or equal to the rolled-back rate computed pursuant to s. 200.065(1) and a second column identifying each taxing authority levying an amount in excess of that rate.
